Gold Saturn's "Prescriptions For Peace"

When asked about the message behind his "Prescription for Peace" design, David Jon relies.

"It's an obvious oxymoron. I wasn't actually thinking about the message when I was creating the tee I just wanted to create a trippy, badass shirt that you would want to wear everyday."

David Jon Acosta's Gold Saturn collection is fresh, fun and quirky. His line has been featured in Six Degrees Magazine, Daily Candy, and ILoveYourTShirt.com. The collection is coveted by everyone from young downtown hipsters to hip mothers. Peter Davis has even given it his stamp of approval. So jump on the bandwagon and go to GoldSaturn.com to score your shirts, before everyone else catches on.

You can also vote on what you would like the next Gold Saturn design to look like!
