Places my friends and I like to go:

C. Madeleine's: "One of the fashion wonders of the world and my favorite place to find inspiration. Where else can you go through 10 decades of fashion on a Saturday afternoon? You can't help but spend your entire day in this wonderland."

Aerobar: "Thursday night's Guilty Pleasures party is such a good time, and the music is out-of-hand! If you want a wild night out on the town, this is the place to go."

Scotty's Landing: "The perfect way to end a weekend of mayhem. With its great view, Sunday afternoons at Scotty's is a perfect way to kick back in the Grove—and my Boston terrier loves it, too!"
