

The So Tacky Magazine Team does love a good T-shirt with a rockin' print. Messages, old cartoon faves or just great prints, we like them all.

Because no-one of us is a designer, we search the web for fab T-shirt designers. Thus, we came across David Jon Acosta. His love for tees is clearly visible in his collection. No huss, no fuss. He relies on his instincts. Creating funny tees like "The Prescription for Peace" & "Mushrooms not Missiles" tees.
